

Health
Consumers
Tasmania

Building a Consumers Health Voice in Tasmania

Training for Health Consumer Representatives

Health Consumers Tasmania is pleased to offer an introductory training session to health consumer representatives.

The session is designed to support health consumer representatives understand and reflect on their role and responsibilities, particularly in committee processes.

Pre-reading is provided online by coordinators of the Associate Degree in Applied Health and Community Support, University College, University of Tasmania.

Training will be held:

Launceston - Wednesday 4 March from 9.30am to 12pm in the Barrow Room on the Ground Level of the CH Smith Centre, 16-24 Charles Street. Register at <https://launcestonhcrt.eventbrite.ca>.

Devonport - Thursday 5 March from 9.30am to 12pm at the paranaple Convention Centre, Market Square, 137 Rooke St. Register at <https://devonporthcrt.eventbrite.ca>

Hobart – Wednesday 25 March from 9.30am to 12pm at the Heart Foundation Training Room, 1/89 Brisbane St. Register at <https://hobarthcrt.eventbrite.ca>

Please note a separate training session is being held in the afternoon for THS staff in how to best work with health consumer representatives, and you are welcome to stay and enjoy a lunch with them from 12 pm to 1.30pm as you end your training and they commence their, to encourage networking and shared learning.

Please confirm your attendance and any dietary requirements as soon you are able through the Eventbrite booking links provided above.

Any queries please contact Kate Griggs at zephyr.cruisin@yahoo.com.au.