

Access to Psychiatry      Continue the Tasmanian Mental Health Reform Program      Affordable Mental Health
 Listen to Families and Friends      Community-based Care      Financial Support      Adopt the Triangle of Care
 Equal Care Partnership      Long-term Supported Accommodation (for people with severe mental ill health)
 Include Family Members and Friends      Trauma Informed Services      Provide Choice      Client-centred Care
 Accountability to Patients and Support People      Financial Help      Consistency of Services and Support
 Carer Subsidies      Commitment to Follow-Up
 Community-Based Mental Health Hubs      Listen      Intervention Before Crisis      Value Unpaid Support People
 Reduced Waitlists      Adequate Funding      Community Consultation
 Someone to Talk      Respite for Support People      Peer Support      Medium-term Care Facilities
 Commitment to Support      Involve Us      Value Family and Friend Input
 More Peer Workers      People Who Understand      Training for Support People
 Understanding of Comorbidities      Education      Alternative Options to Emergency Presentation
 Whole of Government Responses      Listen to Us      Acceptance of Family and Friend Voice
 Training and Support      More Psychiatrists      Prevention      Shorter Wait Times      Involvement in Care Planning
 Genuine Understanding      Service Navigation Support      Workforce Education (working with support people)
 Access to Preventative Health Services      Clear Provision of Information about Services      Transparency about Wait-times and Service Provision
 Opportunities for Social Connection      Subsidised Living Costs      Information      Affordable Community Based Services
 Resources for Support People      Specific Family and Friend Counsellors      Subsidised Physical Activities
 Acknowledgement of support people at all stages of their care journey      More, localised study of diagnosis, treatment and prevention
 Accessible Mental Health Services      Out-of-hours Services

